1. On 7 April 1947 representatives of the USSR, Chinese Communists, Mongolian People's Republic and Eastern Inner Mongolia assembled at Wangyehmiao to discuss future coordination of military operations. Participants at the meeting were a Soviet Major Shchanikov, Chinese Communist CHANG Lin-ko (張林閣), Major Sereg () from the Mongolian People's Republic, Asgan, Commander-in-Chief of the Inner Mongolian People's Self Protection Army, Chinchokto* () Assistant Commander-in-Chief of the Army, and Hafongga, vice-chairman of the recently reorganized Inner Mongolian Autonomous Government. A representative from the Hulunbuir Autonomous Government attended as an observer. Future cooperation among the various groups represented was discussed. The Soviet delegate stated that there might be an international change in the near future, at which time they would all "spread and coordinate the battle line". He said that at that time the USSR would give full assistance and would cooperate with "relief of mind".

Note: the Chinese

Communists have concluded a military agreement with the Mongolian People's Republic.)

Note:

Chen Chogto to be a Vice Chief-of-Staff of the Inner Mongolian Army./

2. Every month a Buriat Mongol Major named Sanjejap (Chinese phoneticization: San-chieh-cha-pu) goes to Manchouli, Hailar, and Chalandun to meet the influential Mongols of those regions. Sanjejap was in Changchun with the Soviet army until April 1946 when they withdrew. While there he carried on liaison with the Mongols in Changchun who came originally from the area of Eastern Inner Mongolia.

Note: Sanjejap is probably the same as Sanjaijap, Chief of the Propaganda Department of the Inner Mongolian Autonomous Government.

Sanjaijap to be head of the Education Section of the reorganized Inner Mongolian Autonomous Government at Wangyehmiao./
